

Remember the three parts of an expository essay:

1. Introduction (overview of what you hope to accomplish in the essay (the problem or task).
2. Main body of your paper (this part addresses the questions in the Checklist) provides analysis of this topic or problem, and a recommended solution and then support for your recommendation.
3. Conclusion (this summarizes your response to the assignment).