

TH230

The Fasure Company event included:

- A breakfast and plenary session with speaker starting at 7:00 a.m. every morning starting on Tuesday morning. (Attendees arrived on Monday night).
- Individual department heads arranged to take their team out to dinner that night to one of three suggested restaurants. One of which had a disaster in the kitchen and attendees were relegated to eating fast food nearby.
- Twenty (20) concurrent working sessions every two hours– Each employee was required to attend two sessions in the morning and two in the evening. So there were 10 employees in each working group. They met with the same groups each day. Ending sessions at 7:00 p.m. in time for dinner at 7:30 p.m.–10:30 p.m.
- A working boxed lunch every day using recyclable paper products was served. Many of the participants began ordering out to local delicatessens nearby.
- A working sit-down dinner Tuesday was provided with a speaker that proved so uninspirational that many participants slipped out the back and went to their rooms or the bar to relax.
- Wednesday night dinner was with their department colleagues at a restaurant of their choice and was reimbursed to the department head.
- Thursday night's dinner was a formal black tie, sit-down dinner that included a magic act and Sun Circus performers as entertainment as well as an award for the best visionary plan. Everyone stayed for this event and seemed to enjoy it.
- Wednesday after 6 p.m. there was an optional golf and tennis tournament provided by the company at the resort. The attendance was very low, and most participants seemed to gather at the pool.

The resort chosen was in a city near you and accommodated these guests assuming that each guest occupied a king-sized room. There was no free limo, or shuttle service, from the hotel to pick up guests at the airport. Flights were arranged by the company since participants were arriving from many destinations. All invitees booked flights home after 5:00 pm on Friday. They were reimbursed for their meals traveling to the resort and on the return home up to $20 per meal.
