

Unit 8 Assignment

Culture, Race, Gender, and Ethnicity

Write a 2–3-page paper (excluding cover page) that responds to the following:

Define the pervasive influence of gender in criminal justice, focusing on women who work in the criminal justice system.

According to the United States Census, the population in the United States is growing more and more diverse with each decade. While an increase in diversity adds a wonderful richness to society, it also adds challenges to serving the needs of the community effectively. For this assignment, you will analyze and explore, using reputable cited research, gender and how it adds to these challenges.

Define the pervasive influence of gender in criminal justice, focusing on women who work in the criminal justice system.

- How do a woman's personal experiences influence how she approaches her job in the workplace? Are women professionals treated differently than men because of these experiences?
- Have women working in a male dominated field of criminal justice changed the complexion and complexity of the field? If so, how?
- Is this influence beneficial to the overall mission and goals of criminal justice agencies? If so, how?

If you are studying a discipline other than criminal justice, and wish to tailor your assignment to that discipline, you can contact your instructor for permission.
